Registered Sex Offender Arrested for Suspicion of Possessing Child Porn

LINCOLN – Attorney General Jon Bruning today announced Vance D. Baumbach, 36, of Oxford was arrested on suspicion of possession of child pornography. Baumbach was previously convicted of felony sexual exploitation of a child in Colorado. He is a registered sex offender currently on parole.

“Our investigators found more than 1,000 sexually explicit images on multiple hard-drives,” said Bruning. “This man’s history of sexually abusing a child coupled with his collection of sexual images of minors is beyond disturbing.”

Attorney General’s Office investigators executed a search of Baumbach’s computer in cooperation with the Furnas County Sheriff’s Office. He is currently being held in Furnas County jail.
